

Amy Galey

Amy Galey enters her second year on staff for the Lady Prospects. Coach Galey took over coaching the 13U Lady Prospects in May 2009. In her first tournament, she won the MAYB Summer Kickoff D Division Championship. Amy is excited to return in the summer of 2010 to continue working with her 13U team.

Coach Galey graduated from Excelsior Springs High School in Excelsior Springs, MO in 2007. She began her collegiate basketball career at Highland Community College where she played for two consecutive seasons.

As a freshman at Highland Community College, Amy was named NJCAA 1st Team All-Region, Honorable Mention All Conference, and in her second season she repeated as a 1st Team All-Region Selection, earned 2nd Team All-Conference honors. To conclude her sophomore year, Amy was an NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American and was named Women's Basketball 3rd Team All-American by the National Junior College Athletic Association. Amy is currently playing basketball at Truman State University in Kirksville, MO.
