

Phillipe McCree

Phillipe McCree is in his fifth year with the Lady Prospects Basketball Club. After starting the Lady Prospects Basketball Club in March 2005, it is now one of the biggest girls basketball programs in the state of Kansas. Players from the Lady Prospects have went on to play collegiately at the University of Minnesota, Rockhurst, Colgate, Mid-America Nazarene University, and numerous NAIA & junior colleges.

Coach McCree began coaching as an assistant for the boys' team at Lawrence Free State High School in 1998. There he was apart of the staff that lead the boys to back to back, 6A state berths in 2000 & 2001. In 2004, Coach McCree took over a dormant girls basketball program at Olathe Christian School. After finishing 9-19 in his first year at OCS, he won the 2006 KCAA state championship in his second year.

Coach McCree currently works as an assistant women's basketball coach at Highland Community College. His duties include post-player development and recruiting coordinator.
